

where

May 2014

"Skulls"

5 Great Things This Month

1 DECORATOR SHOWCASE > THROUGH MAY 26

Tour a stately 9,000-square-foot Presidio Heights mansion's rooms and gardens, each of which has been decorated by a celebrated local interior or landscape designer. 3660 Jackson St., decoratorshowcase.org

2 "MAGIC COLOR FLAIR: THE WORLD OF MARY BLAIR" AT WALT DISNEY FAMILY MUSEUM > THROUGH SEPTEMBER 7

Get introduced to the artistic genius behind legendary Disney films as well as iconic mid-century pop art. The exhibit covers Blair's art school fine art watercolors, prolific years at the animation studio and illustrious commercial career in NYC. 104 Montgomery St., The Presidio, waltdisney.org

3 ART MARKET SAN FRANCISCO > MAY 15-18

More than 70 top galleries from SF and around the country showcase contemporary and modern art at this giant fair. Fort Mason Festival Pavilion, 2 Marina Blvd., art-mkt.com/sf

4 "SKULLS" AT CALIFORNIA ACADEMY OF SCIENCES > OPENING MAY 16

Examine 640 skulls from a diverse spectrum of creatures (elephants and giraffes to frogs and fish) that reveal mysteries of how life survives and evolves on earth. 55 Music Concourse Dr., Golden Gate Park, calacademy.org

5 CARNAVAL > MAY 23-25

This Brazil-inspired street festival in the Mission draws crowds with its global music, dance, food, artisans and colorful parade. The 36th installment takes on a World Cup theme. Hiramson Street between 16th and 24th sts., carnaval-sanfrancisco.org